

I choose life.

What's your overdose survival plan?

Play your part in overdose education.

Everyone should know to knock up in case of overdose.

If you're on your own and feel yourself drifting away, breathe deeply and knock up or call out.

It's your life.

Spread awareness about overdose.
The life you save could be your own.

Saving lives is something we can all agree on.